

Mr. Rathwell - CGC 1P - Quiz Review Notes

- Be able to define the word geography and describe why geography is important to YOU.
- Be able to list and describe some factors that can impact where things are located in the world
- Know the Mercator and Winkel-Tripel map projections - what they are and what the advantages or disadvantages are.
- Be able to list and describe the 4 factors to consider when choosing a map projection (SIZE, SHAPE, DIRECTION, DISTANCE)
- Be able to LIST and explain the main types of maps and what they are used for (Political (general purpose), Thematic, Topographic)
- Be able to look at a map and interpret information
- Know what the main features are in a map and what they are used for. (i.e. Title, border, direction, scale, legend, date, publisher (name))
- Be able to draw or label a compass rose with the cardinal and ordinal points